AGREED ON BY THE LORDS and COMMONS
in Parliament.

That there shall be a Treaty upon the Propositions, before the disbanding. In which Treaty, so much of His Majesties Proposition as concerneth the Magazines, Forts and Ships, and the Proposition of both Houses for the disbanding of the Armies, shall be first Treated of, and concluded on, before the proceeding to Treat upon any of the other Propositions.

And that this Treaty shall begin the fourth of March, or sooner if it may be. And that from the beginning of the Treaty, the time may not exceed Twenty dayes.

Jo. BROWNE, Cleric.
Parliamentorum.

HIS MAJESTIES
ANSWER TO THE VOTES OF BOTH HOUSES,
and to their desire of a safe Conduct.

 HIS Majesty hath sent a safe Conduct for the Earle of Northumberland, Mr Perpoint, Sir William Ermine, Sir John Holland, and Mr Whitlocke, but hath not admitted the Lord Say to attend Him, as being excepted against by name in His Proclamation at Oxford, of the third of November, and by Writ to the Sheriffe Proclaimed then in that County, in which His Majesties intention is declared, to proceed against him as a Person guilty of high Treason, and so falling to be within the case of Sir Iohn Evelin, who upon the same exception was not admitted to attend
His Majesty with the rest of the Committee at Colebroke, in November last. But His Majesty doth signify,

signify, that in case the House shall think fit to send any other Person in the place of the Lord Say, that is not included in the like exception, His Majesty hath commanded all His Officers, Souldiers and other Subjects, to suffer him as freely to passe and repasse, as if his name had been particularly comprised in this safe Conduct. His Majesty is content that His Proposition concerning the Magazines, Forts, Ships, and Revenue, and the Proposition of both Houses for the disbanding of the Armies, shall be first Treated of, and agreed of, before the Proceeding to Treat upon any of the other Propositions. And that after the second of His Majesties, and the second of theirs be treated on, and agreed of, and so on in the same order. And that from the beginning of the Treaty, the time may not exceed twenty daies, in which He hopes a full peace and right understanding may be established throughout the Kingdom.

His Majesties safe Conduct.

U R Will and Pleasure is, And We doe hereby straitly Charge and Command all the Officers and Souldiers of Our present Army, and all Our Ministers and Subjects whatsoever, to permit and suffer Our Right trusty and Right wellbeloved Couzin and Counsellor Algernon Earle of Northumberland, and Our Trusty and Welbeloved William Perpoint Esq. Sir William Ermyne, and Sir Iohn Holland Knights, and Bulstrode Whitlock Esq. (together with their Servants) to passe and repasse to and from Us, without any Let or Hindrance, they being now sent to attend Vs from Our two Houses of Parliament. This Our safe Conduct under Our Signe Manuall and Royall Signet, We Charge and Command them, and every of them, punctually to observe and obey, as they will answer the contrary at their uttermost perills.

Given at Our Court at OXFORD, the third of MARCH. 1642.
